its outstanding performance in the health care profession. The award, presented by the American Health Care Association and National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL), highlights facilities across the nation that have demonstrated their intention to pursue a rigorous quality improvement system.

"This award signifies a great commitment to quality care and an important step in raising the standards of sustainable, person-centered care and services," says Kansas Governor Mark Parkinson, President and CEO of AHCA/NCAL. "We congratulate the Carriage Inn of Dayton on this achievement."

term and post-acute care services in achieving their performance excellence goals.

"The recipients of the quality awards exemplify the energy and dedication required to advance quality care to the next level," says Chick Stepahin, Chair, AHCA/NCAL National Quality Award Board of Overseers. "Improving quality care is an evolutionary cycle, and these facilities are the forerunners of the movement."

Carriage Inn of Dayton was one of the facilities to receive the Bronze level award. The award will be presented to Carriage Inn of Dayton during AHCA/NCAL's 62nd Annual Convention and Exposition, September 18-21, 2011 in Las Vegas, NV.
